

Klassen and Nieman

Megan Christine Klassen and Rodney Joe Nieman were married at five o'clock in the afternoon of June 27, 2015 at Hesston Mennonite Church in Hesston, Kansas. Officiating the ceremony was John C. Murray and Sharon Woodward provided music.

The bride is the daughter of Myron and Shelley Klassen of Hesston. The groom is the son of Mike and Kathy Nieman of McPherson.

Escorted to the altar by her father, and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a Maggie Sottero gown that was ivory lace with a keyhole opening in the back. The bouquet was made of white hydrangeas, baby's breath, and peach-colored roses that was arranged by Ruzen Flowers in Newton.

The bride was attended by her maid of honor, Heidi Richtig, and bridesmaids Kristen Betts, Courtney Callegari, and Shanda Swanson, all friends of the bride. The bridesmaids wore soft peach silk chiffon dresses and held bouquets of white hydrangeas.

Chad Nieman, brother of the groom, served as best man. Brock Nieman, brother of the groom, Andrew Reese and Trent Swanson, friends of the groom, served as groomsmen.

Following the ceremony, guests traveled to McPherson to the Perkins Banquet Center for dinner, drinks and dancing. At the reception venue, the tables were set with mason jars filled with white hydrangeas and baby's breath arranged by Julie Gudenkauf of McPherson. Guests could also entertain themselves with a whimsical photobooth fit with fun props and cafe lighting.

The bride and groom cut a small cake and enjoyed a glass of champagne in front of a beautiful barnwood backdrop with the letters "L-O-V-E" lit up. The toasts were then given by the maid of honor, best man, and father of the bride and guests enjoyed sheet cakes made by Arlene Anderson of McPherson. Once guests had finished eating, they joined the couple on the dance floor and danced the night away.

The couple is able to forever enjoy memories of their special day captured by their cinematographers, Brickhouse Wedding Films and their photographer, Megan Hein Photography. Bel Amour Events coordinated the beautiful ceremony and reception.

For their honeymoon, the bride and groom traveled to the Bahamas where they spent a wonderful week at Sandals Emerald Bay. They returned home to McPherson where the groom works at CHS and the bride is a teacher at McPherson High School. The couple celebrated their first anniversary with their new baby girl, Camry Christine, born on June 4, 2016. kw

